

Architect's Briefcase

---

The architect's briefcase is a literacy prop that can be added to a block center to encourage children to plan and write about construction experiences. With the availability of writing materials, children often make signs for their buildings and draw designs.

Include in the case:

rulers, clipboards, pads of paper, level, pencils, old blue prints and more.

